

Guiding Principles for Use of ARPA funds in Iowa City

Leverage partnerships and outside funding; avoid duplication with other relief programs

Restore financial stability to support future governmental operations

Retain flexibility to address evolving emergent community needs

Seek opportunities to make lasting change in physical and social infrastructure

Ensure funding decisions help mitigate racial inequalities

Pursue actions that contribute toward the City's climate action goals

Limit operational investments without identified sustainable funding sources

Demonstrate compliance and transparency through regular public reporting